In the beginning...
Purpose & Passion

- Advance the knowledge of neuroscience nurses
- Establish an identity as a local chapter
  - Networking
  - Support of professional practice
- Spread their passion for neuroscience nursing
How Did We Get Here?

Monthly Meetings
- planning
- member’s house
- Membership: 3

Monthly Lecture Meetings
- Physician lecturers
- Hospital conference rooms
- Membership: 6-8 nurses

Quarterly Meetings
- Nurse lecturer
- member’s house
- Membership: 4-6 nurses

Semi-annual Meetings
- Nurse lecturers
- Area restaurants
- Membership: 14

Monthly Meetings
- Even months: nurse lecturer
- Odd months: business
- Area restaurants
- Membership: 32

First Annual Neuroscience Conference
- March 11, 1994
- Joint venture: HMC CE Dept & Susquehanna Valley Chapter AANN

19th Annual Neuroscience Conference
- March 22–23, 2012
- Joint venture: HMC CE Dept & Susquehanna Valley Chapter AANN

The Susquehanna Valley Chapter of AANN invites you to dinner and an evening of Professional Education

Tuesday, November 14, 2006  6:00-8:30 PM
Chapps at the Hill Restaurant
EXPLORING THE RARE NEUROLOGIC DISORDER, TRANSVERSE MYELITIS
Dr. Daniel DeFalcis, M.D.
Medical Director
HEALTHSOUTH Rehabilitation Hospital of York
No charge for AANN members and students
$5 for non-members
PSNA hours will be offered
Registration by phone or e-mail by November 3rd
Limited seating is available
Phone: 717-851-5971 or E-mail: kdietz2@wellspan.org
Sponsored by HEALTHSOUTH Rehabilitation Hospital of York
Chapps Restaurant is located at 1839 S. Queen Street in York, just off route 83.
From Rt 83: take exit 16B. Merge onto South Queen Street. Go approx 1 mile, restaurant on your right.