

PIRRADAZIŠ

BULLETIN OF ACHAEMENIAN STUDIES

Edited by Charles E. Jones

Number 2: 10 January 1991

EDITORIAL

This second issue of PIRRADAZIŠ is going "to press", as anticipated, at the beginning of January 1991. Most of you who receive this issue will have received the first issue in June 1990. Those who did not get a copy may request one from the editor at the address indicated below.

The objective of PIRRADAZIŠ remains the same as stated in issue No. 1: to provide a medium for the rapid dissemination of information on things Achaemenid.

Your response to the first issue has been encouraging. Many of you have sent information and offprints of publications. Others have added our address to informational mailing lists. This kind of participation is essential to the successful compilation of this bulletin. Thanks to all who contributed.

Each of you who receives this issue of PIRRADAZIŠ should consider this a direct solicitation for information to be included in subsequent issues. At this point I am not particularly concerned with older material. After the appearance of Weber, Ursula; Wiesehöfer, Josef. Das Reich der Achaimeniden: Eine Bibliographie. Berlin: Dietrich Reimer; forthcoming. (Archäologische Mitteilungen aus Iran, Ergänzungsheft; v. 14) I will attempt to fill in any lacunae which might appear and to cover the bibliography of the time between their closing date and the debut of PIRRADAZIŠ. For now, I am happy to include notices of titles I have missed in compiling the first two lists, beginning more or less with material appearing in 1990. I am especially interested in signaling "obscure" references. I have attempted to be as thorough as possible in my citations, and would appreciate similar consideration in return. It is my inclination not to include citations I have not actually seen; thorough citations will facilitate my search and may sway me to include unchecked references. I set no limits on the range or type of material to be included. Achaemenid or Achaemenian may be construed however each reader or contributor wishes. With these guidelines in mind, I am soliciting information in the following categories:

- 1 - Papers presented at conferences, seminars, etc.
- 2 - Publications. Articles, books, bibliographies, etc.; particularly those which I might consider obscure (i.e., in periodicals, Festschriften, proceedings volumes, etc. which are not specifically related to Ancient Studies in either its Orientalist or Occidental manifestation)
- 3 - Titles of theses and dissertations recently completed or in preparation
- 4 - Notice of future conferences, seminars, etc.
- 5 - Notice of projects, ongoing research interests, solicitations for information, help, news, personalia, etc.

If your department, institute, équipe, press, etc., has a mailing list, please request that our address be included on it. Please also pass copies of PIRRADAZIŠ (or our address) on to interested colleagues who may not have made our initial mailing list. Please bring us to the attention of your institutional bibliographer or librarian and request that your library subscribe.

PIRRADAZIŠ has no current formal institutional affiliation. Because of this the costs of duplication and postage have heretofore been borne solely by the editor. Those of you who wish to receive the next two issues should send payment of US$ 5.00 either in cash or by check made payable to Charles E. Jones. Due to the intransigence of the American banking system, I am unable to accept payment in currency other than US$. I will consider exchanges of publications of equivalent value or other payment in kind in lieu of cash. I am open to your suggestions for other means of support.

All communications should be addressed to:

PIRRADAZIŠ 2 was compiled from material made known to the editor in the period 1 July 1990 - 8 January 1991

The illustration overleaf is a reproduction of 'The Persepolis Kerman'. This rug was woven in the Kerman workshop of Hajji Gholam Riza in 1900. The inscription at the upper end of the border reads: "Woven according to the command of his excellency, Aghayi Assadullah Khan Behjetulmulk, the vice-governor of the state of Fars, following the time when he made a tour of Persepolis. After seeing all, he commissioned Mirza Aghayi Forsati of Shiraz to study the ruins of the old buildings, as well as the sculptured figures and writings, who began to draw and translate the ancient writings in detail. The results of these labors were woven in this rug in the workshop of Hajji Gholam Riza of Kirman."

The rug, measuring twenty-four feet six inches by seventeen feet was given to The University of Chicago by Mrs. Mary Hooker Dole of Oak Park Illinois. For some years it lay on the floor of the Quadrangle Club, and was subsequently moved to Rockefeller Chapel where it was mounted on the South wall of the East transept.
